Dude, you're shooting high with a G15. Not least of all since you'll need 5 more years of fed service to qualify for it. But fret not, I have a plan... just remember I deal in pay-for-stay :)

The meeting was primarily to inform Mr. [REDACTED] of the ruling and discuss the case. I don't need you to go with me; I just asked if you wanted to go and took your response as a yes. It's fine for you to not.

I did notice that you looked pretty unhappy earlier. I hope you feel better. I'm happy to offer a drink and an ear if you need one, though I get the feeling you are not comfortable talking to me about it. Might I suggest Mary Ellen? She's completely separate from all aspects of this and would give you some good perspective.

My apologies, I have been completely absorbed in the [REDACTED] matter. I am doing some more research here and then I was planning on leaving a little early. I am completely mentally and emotionally exhausted.

This is to discuss with him the plea options? Not sure if you really need me to go with you but if so then Monday would probably work better for me. Thanks, Caryn

Yes, I did that for purposes of humanizing the client. I'm aware it may be off-putting if you're used to a drier writing style, but in my experience that form of psychological distance-closing can be effective.

Thanks. I'm going to get this filed and get a celebratory drink. You're welcome to join me, but if I recall correctly, you have an appellate brief to write.

Sorry for not getting to this earlier, busy afternoon. I agree it's close and I mostly just fixed a few minor typos in track changes. the only thing I wanted to double check is that you want to refer to him as [REDACTED]

Hey Caryn,

Can we catch up for a little bit some time this week? I think it would be good for us to have another mentoring session. We can do it over lunch, or cut out early one day for a celebratory post-[REDACTED] drink, or we can just do it in the office-- I think it might be good to have some distance from work, but whatever makes you most comfortable is fine with me. I am free all day tomorrow and Friday; could even do this afternoon after I get out of a debrief. Just let me know what your schedule is like.
